SEPTEMBER: Journal Adventure Prompts

Instructions: In your journal, respond to the following adventure prompts. Don't all the space on the page limit your response. Write as much or as little as you need to answer the question fully.

1. What are you good at?
   What are three things that make you unique? (understanding your authenticity)

2. What are your values?

Note: Your values. Not your parent's values. Differentiate yourself.

3. If failure was not an option, what would you start/do?
